

Writing Task: Write a well-organized opinion essay.

TOPIC: Food is the most important element on special occasions such as birthdays and weddings. Do you agree or disagree? Support your arguments.

Everybody knows that food is vital for human beings. It has always been crucial in every culture all around the world. In my opinion, food is also important on special days like birthdays and weddings. These days are about celebrating and making memories. I agree with the idea that food is the most important part of these occasions. It is not just about eating; it brings people together and makes the celebration special.

Firstly, food makes special days feel even better. When there is a birthday cake or a big meal at a wedding, it makes the day more exciting. Smelling the food and sitting together to eat creates a happy atmosphere. Food is like the star of the show; it makes the celebration more than just a regular day. So, it makes those special occasions unforgettable.

Also, food connects us to our culture and emotions during special times. Every culture has special foods for celebrations. These foods are important because they connect us to our family history. When we share these dishes, it brings us closer to our roots. Making and eating meals together also makes our relationships stronger, making the day even more special.

Additionally, food is not just about eating. It has special meanings. At weddings, big feasts show that the couple is starting a happy life together. Birthday cakes show the joy of growing older. Therefore, food becomes a way to show happiness and bring people closer. It is like a language of joy that everyone can understand.

In conclusion, as I have indicated above, food is the most important part of special occasions like birthdays and weddings. It is not just about eating; it helps to create a happy atmosphere, connects us to our culture, and shows joy in a special way. Whether it is a birthday or a wedding, good food makes the celebration unforgettable for everyone.
